

10TH SUMMER SCHOOL ON DIALOGICAL PRACTICES

20-24th August 2018 - Brno. Czech Republic.

For practitioners in psychiatry, psychotherapy, family therapy, counselling, social work, etc. seeking to learn, share, discuss & create dialogical ideas with the emphasis on participation & creative thinking in an informal environment.

The Summer School provides:

- opportunities to develop & expand dialogical practice skills, knowledge, and perspectives
- latest updates in thinking, developments & research
- forum to informally meet and network with key dialogical practitioners & thinkers
- a small (max 15 participants), informal learning environment.
- 35 CPD hours

The programme includes:

- brief introduction to dialogical practices: theory, application & philosophy
- examples of dialogical working in different settings
- participant practice supervision
- live consultations with clients
- workshops & practical exercises focused on developing creativity
- networking and socialising in the beautiful, lively Moravian city of Brno

Presenters & course leaders:

Prof. Jaakko Seikkula – 2018 guest presenter.

Professor of Psychotherapy at Univ. of Jyväskylä, Finland. Founder of Open Dialogue Approach in complex psychosis and key developer of dialogical practice and theory.

Prof. Ivana Markova – 2018 guest presenter.

Professor at Univ. of Stirling & Dept of Soc. Psychology LSE. Fellow of British Academy & Royal Society of Edinburgh. Leading researcher & authority on dialogical epistemology & social change.

Lucie Hornova MA

Outpatient psychology & psychotherapy service, Rychnov, Czech Rep.
Systemic Family Therapist, Systemic Supervisor. PhD candidate in dialogical ethics.

Prof. Matthias Ochs

Hochschule Fulda – Univ. of Applied Sciences, Germany.
Professor of Psychology & Counselling. Systemic & Family therapist & Gestalt therapist.

Dr Pavel Nepustil

Co-founder of Narativ and promoter and advocate of dialogical practices.
Specialist in developing dialogical approaches to addiction recovery.

Course fees: 250-400 euros. (Pay as you can afford).

Contact: lucie.hornova@gmail.com

Further info: <http://dialogicalpractices.org/events/summer-school/>

“Dialogical Practice is the strongly-evidenced way to engage and work effectively and collaboratively with complex cases of psychosis, addiction, distress, conflict, etc., not by focusing on diagnosis and labels but by creating therapeutic dialogue around people's experiences, stories, relationships and ideas”